CORPORATE MEMBERSHIPS

The Columbia Rotary Club is pleased to offer the option of corporate membership in an effort to give local businesses, nonprofits, government entities, and corporations a more attractive chance to give back to the community while developing both executives and employees' personal and professional skills through Rotary.

At many businesses, the CEO and other top executives will want to add Rotary membership to their resumes because they recognize Rotary's reputation for combining business networking with community service. A corporate membership will allow your busy executives the chance to learn about the needs of their community so they can serve it well, while experiencing the personal satisfaction of knowing they're helping others. Younger professionals will enjoy the flexibility of our corporate membership, which is more affordable and requires a smaller time commitment.

Corporate membership allows your company to establish a presence with our Club even when your executives are unable to attend or participate themselves.

HOW THEY WORK

We currently offer the opportunity for two employees to join together as members of Rotary. Both are considered members entitled to the full benefits of membership. Although the business entity isn't a Rotary member, it typically pays the dues for its employees' Rotary membership and may be eligible for a tax deduction where permissible by law.

Here are some other advantages of corporate membership:

- Flexible schedule. Either of the members who joined together can attend a meeting — or all are welcome at the same meeting — adding tremendous flexibility and reducing the time commitment of any one member.
- Community awareness. Executives can meet and socialize with other business leaders in the club, expanding their understanding of the community's needs and wants, and get an insight into how businesses are addressing common concerns.
- Global connections. Members of Rotary have instant access to our global network of 1.2 million members in 35,000 clubs around the world. Wherever you're traveling, there's likely a Rotary club with local business and community leaders who will welcome you.
- Networking opportunities. Through Rotary, business leaders can make important contacts that can result in profitable business ventures in the future.
- Commitment to service. Employees of the business recognize and appreciate the company's commitment to serving others. Even if employees don't join the Rotary club, service becomes part of the corporate culture.
- One-stop source. Rotary is a productive use of an executive's time. Instead of joining a variety of boards, each with their own unique focus, time commitment, and cost, Rotary is a comprehensive source where members can learn about many of the social issues and concerns in the community.
- Personal satisfaction. Members experience the gratification of knowing that they're helping people who may not have the means to help themselves.

Corporate Membership Dues are $2000 annually and include:

- ⇒ Membership for 2 Individuals from your Company
- ⇒ Lunch for all meetings attended
- ⇒ Donation to Rotary International
- ⇒ $200 Per Person Initiation Fee WAIVED
